

PARENT/SPONSOR PERMISSION FOR:

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND READINESS FOR A NEW GENERATION A FINANCIAL SEMINAR FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS and THEIR PARENTS

The 423rd Airman & Family Readiness Center (A&FRC) at RAF Alconbury will be offering to both high school students and their parents an opportunity to attend a 3-hour financial readiness program during the Week of the Air Force Family. This financial program is open to all Tri-Base Personnel who have a child that is a high school student (priority given to seniors and juniors).

If parents will not be attending the program with their teen and because this activity is away from the school premises and on a SATURDAY, we ask that parents complete a permission slip for their child to attend this program. The program has been planned and coordinated and will be taken under the supervision of 2 staff members of the Airman & Family Readiness Center. Your son/daughter/ward is invited to participate in this exciting program. Additional information about the program is indicated below.

- Target Audience: High Students (with priority being give to seniors and juniors) AND Parents of Student
 - Location: Airman & Family Readiness Center
 - Date: Saturday, 7 Nov 2009
 - Time: 0900-1200
